Scheduling Lessons/Terminating Scheduled Lessons

- There are 33 weeks of private lessons and 2 Studio Recitals available to each student on this schedule for a total of 39 Class Meetings.
- 37 weeks are devoted to Private Lessons therefore no re-scheduled lessons are available. Exceptions may be granted for a death in the family, extreme illness or hardship and pre-arranged rescheduled lessons
- It is expected that you will miss a few class meetings over the year: The following are factored into the schedule and therefore are not subject to rescheduling;
 - Vacations
 - Spring Breaks
 - Minor Illness
 - Sporting Events
- Lessons canceled by the teacher will be rescheduled as needed over the course of the year during the dates highlighted in yellow.
- Students will have the option to take Face to Face or Online/Remote Lessons.
- When a student scheduled to take F2F lessons presents a slight fever, a cough or excessive sneezing, they should not attend the lesson at CMA for the day. Contact Dr. Van Dyke and arrange for an online lesson at their regularly scheduled lesson time.
- Terminating the Lesson Agreement: Clients should give notice one month in advance to terminate lessons. Because tuition is based on an annualized fee divided into equal payments, a termination fee may be charged if inappropriate notice is given. This fee will be based on the number of lessons received X $95.00/hour minus payments received.
